Covenant of Confidentiality and Registration #L200__

The undersigned acknowledges that Lehigh Valley Business Brokers, hereinafter referred to as "Intermediary", has been requested to and will furnish to the Undersigned certain information relating to the business affairs and operations of our client's business for the purpose of negotiating with the Undersigned for the possible purchase by the Undersigned of the said business and/or interest therein.

It is acknowledged by the Undersigned that said information is in all respects of a confidential nature and that any disclosures of the same by the Undersigned (or Undersigned employees, affiliates, etc...), except for the express purpose stated, can and will involve serious harm or damage to the said business and its owners. Therefore, the Undersigned will not use or employ the said information for any purpose other than for consideration of purchase of aforesaid, and covenants that the Undersigned will not directly or indirectly by agent, servant, or employee, disclose the said information, either in whole or in part, to and third person, whether individual, company, or corporation. At the close of negotiations as herein contemplated, and upon examination for the purposes herein stated, the Undersigned will return all records, documents, and memoranda furnished pursuant hereto, to the Intermediary, and will neither make nor retain any copy, reproduction, or record thereof.

It is understood that use or disclosure of confidential information in violation of this covenant may result in legal or equitable action by or for the above named company to enjoin its use or disclosure, or to recover damages for same.

Finally, it is acknowledged that the Intermediary makes no independent representation as to the accuracy or applicability of information supplied. The Intermediary warrants only that the information is 'as furnished' to the Intermediary without alteration and without any knowledge of the Intermediary that the same is other than fairly and accurately presented.

The above mentioned company/individual is hereby registered under all terms and conditions of our engagement agreement currently on file.
